ABOUT THE WORKSHOP

We are delighted to invite you for a 14-hours workshop organized by New Age Edu Serv, Faridabad, Haryana from 10th December 2024 to 18th December, 2024. The Workshop will provide a unique opportunity for Academicians /Ph.D. scholars/PG students, participants of all disciplines and related disciplines from the Higher Education Institutes to deepen their understanding of research, data analysis techniques and publication ethics for research process. The workshop will be organized in the hybrid mode both in-person and online participants.

In the ever-evolving landscape of academia, staying abreast of the latest advancements in data analysis is crucial for impactful research. We are delighted to invite you to our workshop on "Research & Publication Ethics", a comprehensive initiative designed to empower educators and researchers with cutting-edge analytical skills.

This programme is tailored to provide a deep dive into sophisticated data analysis methodologies, equipping participants with the tools needed to enhance the quality and efficiency of their research. From mastering complex statistical models to exploring advanced data visualization techniques, this workshop will cover a wide range of topics essential for contemporary research excellence.
